CHERRY PECTORAL,

For the rapid Cure of

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

THIS remedy is the result of many years of patient research and close observation of the peculiar character of pulmonary disease, and of the best means of relief and cure. That it has performed many remarkable cures, and that it is the most effectual remedy for all affections of the throat, lungs and chest, that has ever been known to the public, is proved by the certificates of those who have been restored to health by its use, and by the living witnesses in every community. Even when disease has baffled the skill of the physician, and all other remedies have failed, the Cherry Pectoral has cured the patient. Hence, it is the best medicine for the use of public speakers, singers, and all who have weak lungs or throats, that can be employed. Its penetrating power, searching the minutest air-cells of the lungs, and its healing influence upon the inflamed membranes, loosening the phlegm, allaying irritation, and subduing inflammation, make it the most perfect remedy for Consumption that has ever been discovered. Even in the last stages of the disease, when the patient is fast sinking into the grave, the Cherry Pectoral will relieve the distressing symptoms, and restore him to health and vigor.

Prepared by J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

AYER'S PILLS,

A NEW and singularly successful remedy for the cure of all Bilious diseases—Costiveness Indigestion Jaundice, Dropsy Rheumatism, Fevers, Sour Humors Nervousness Irritability, Inflammations Headache, Pain in the Breast Side, Back and Limbs Female complaints &c &c. Indeed every form and disorder in which a Purgative Medicine is not more or less required and much suffering might be prevented, if a harmless but effectual Cathartic were more freely used. No person can feel well while a costive habit of body prevails. Indeed it soon generates serious and often fatal diseases which might have been avoided at the timely use of a few boxes of a good purgative. This is alike true of Colds, Fevers, Symptoms, and Bilious derangement. They all tend to become or produce the deep seated and formidable distempers which load the churchyards all over the land. Hence a reliable cathartic, one of the first importance to the public health, until this Pill has been perfected. The consummate skill it has been brought to, and the extensive trial of its virtues by Physicians, Professors and Citizens, have shown its virtues surpassing anything before known. Of its excellence Cures have been effected beyond belief, were they not substantiated by persons of the highest position and character as to put all cavil or question of untruth.

Among the eminent and well men to whom we are allowed to refer for the

DR WM NEVINS, late Surgeon of the United States Navy, City of New York.

DR JAMES M'NEILL, Professor of Physiology, and Surgeon and Physician, City of Portland, who has long used them in his extensive practice.

C A DAVIS, M D., Surgeon and Physician of the United States Marine Hospital, at Chelsea, Mass.

Did space permit, we could give many hundred such names from all parts where the Pills have been sold, but confidence even more convincing than the certificate of their eminent public men is shown in their effects upon trial.

These Pills the result of long investigation and study, are offered to the public as the best and most complete of which the present state of medical science can afford. They so compounded that the drugs they enclose, both of the vegetable and mineral kingdoms, are extracted by chemical process that is of a purer and combined together in such a manner as to give the best results known, while at the same time every injurious ingredient is thrown out. In the Cherry Pectoral and Pills both, in proportion as more efficient remedy than it has hitherto been obtained by any process. The result is perfection of cures. While by the skill made of composition or preparation, the most disagreeable medicine is rendered easy to take, and even pleasant. Hence no one however delicate or young need hesitate to take such medicine as they contain, however nauseous or unpalatable it may be, if disease is present, and that medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and not at all but properly judge of a remedy, when that knows the composition, I have supplied the accurate formula by which both my Pectoral and Pills are made to the whole body of Practitioners in the United States and British America. Professors of Medicine, who have tried these agents, know their value, and to any one who has not received them, they will be promptly forwarded by mail to his address.

Of all the Patent Medicines that are offered how few would be taken if their composition was known! Their life consists in their mystery. I have no mysteries.

The composition of my preparations is laid open to all men, and all who are competent to judge on the subject freely acknowledge their excellence. Of their intrinsic merits, the Chemical Doctor was pronounced by eminent men to be a wonderful medicine before its secrets were known. Many eminent Physicians have declared the same thing of my Pills, and even more confidently, and are willing to go for it that their extraordinary virtues were not realized by their effects upon trial.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—in so doing the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring them to regular action to health and by correcting wherever they exist such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Being sugar coated they are pleasant to take and being entirely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

For minute directions, see the wrapper on the Box.

Prepared by JAMES C AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell Mass.

John Bunyan's Immortal Allegory

PROBABLY no book save the Bible has been so extensively read as Bunyan's immortal allegory

The Pilgrim's Progress,

It has been translated into nearly all the different languages of Christendom and been perused with delight and holy fervor by all nations. At last the artist has attempted to illustrate it in the forms of illustration from the rough Wood Cuts of the early times to the Steel Engraving of the middle of the nineteenth century and to an American clergyman are we indebted for the only pictorial conception of the immortal work.

The novel and humane idea of embodying the entire story, and train forming the same to a single picture showing the wanderings of Christian from the City of Destruction to the Celestial City, presenting at one view to the eye the varied scenes through which he passed originated with Rev DANIEL WISE of Massachusetts. His truly original and beautiful conception was reduced to a most elegant design by HARNATT BILLINGS and from the design JOSEPH ANDREWS the distinguished steel engraver has produced after four years of labor, a picture which will take rank among the most superb and elaborate productions of human genius ever published.

The picture is now ready and will be offered at the Bookstores of the Publishers and by Agents duly appointed by the Publishers

Agriculture.

Mr S A Nash, a correspondent of the Country Gentleman, concludes one of his valuable letters as follows

Having spoken more at large on a former occasion of the appropriation of lands to that fertility which their nature are, location have best adapted them, I will now introduce another point, one in which British farmers excel, and in which American farmers would do well to take a lesson from them, viz The cultivation of land with an intelligent reference to the product sought. A piece of land, for example, is to be set apart for the growing of wool and mutton. It would not be wise to manure that land from the sheep fold, for it has of course a supply of that kind of manure. It may not be best to manure it at all, certainly will not, unless some manure can be obtained just calculated to restore the ingredients carried off in the wool, mutton and lamb. The mineral ingredients annually taken off, will be, among others less important, phosphate of lime, carbonate of lime and sulphur, the two former in the bones of the animals, the latter in the wool. A dressing of plaster and bone dust, or a dressing of bone dust dissolved in sulphuric acid would supply these ingredients, and could hardly fail to give a good return for the expense. Suppose again that a piece of land has been designed for feeding cows. Large quantities of the phosphates will be carried off in the milk and veal. Nothing can be more manifest than that these should be resupplied in the form of bone dust, or in that of the mineral phosphorite. Many a farmer's family are laboring hard at the dairy with but half the profit they might obtain, if the ingredients, whose long continued dairying has taken from the soil, were restored. So again of pork raising for the market, though the case is less urgent, yet the beef carried from a pasture for a century past has taken considerable quantities of the phosphates, and these must be supplied before the best income can be had from that pasture. The same is true of fields from which grain has been sold, instead of being consumed on the farm and the manure returned to the land. They need a resupply of the phosphates.

In the matter of preparing the ground, with due reference to the crop to be put upon it, as plowing is sufficient by long before hand, stirring it sufficiently often, selecting the best kind of manure for the intended crop incorporating the manure evenly with the soil, obtaining the best seed sowing it at a proper time, and, generally in attending to all the known conditions of success English farmers are certainly in advance of American. With them the question is not so much how and when they will do things as how and when they ought to be done in order to secure the best result. Their attention to a right preparation of the land for a particular crop is not confined to a few days or weeks before sowing. It extends over months and sometimes years. Indeed, in the more common four years rotation, of turneps, barley clover, wheat the whole previous course has reference to the wheat crop. The question is not simply what will pay best in itself but what will pay best when followed by me, while standing by a spade and field of turneps in which I as mer were at work. "I suppose you cannot grow such turneps as these in your dry climate. "No, said I, but we can grow Indian corn that is a glorious crop if you could grow it in your wet climate as we do in ours, we should hear little more of your turneps." Oh, said he, we do not think much of the turneps for their own sake but we grow them to prepare the ground for the other crops especially the wheat. Thus not only is the ground carefully prepared for any important crop previously to sowing but each preceding crop is arranged with a reference to the same end. If bone dust is applied plentifully to the turnep crop, it is not for the sake of the turneps but these are to be eaten off by sheep and both they the bone dust is to go back into the soil finely and evenly distributed for the succeeding crops. The barley crop, which follows, is supposed to draw from the soil some what different ingredients from those required by the following crops, so that its removal does not very much impair the capability of the land for the production of clover and wheat. And then the clover is to be fed in part at least, on the soil, its roots are to be plowed up, and will soon decay, so that the ingredients of this crop also are distributed through the soil in addition to supply food to the final crop, the wheat which the whole course has been looking forward, and for which it has all or at least all except the barley been preparing the ground.

Mainly the cultivation is adapted to the nature and wants of the coming crops. If, for instance, wheat is to be put upon heavy land, the soil is worked over and over, and made as light as possible, for the farmer knows it will settle down and become too heavy at best. But if what is to be put upon sandy soil, he knows that the difficulty is directly the reverse, that wheat, unlike barley or oats, requires a solid foundation on which to stand, and he therefore takes measures, either by rolling a wheel or otherwise, to consolidate the soil in the bottom of the trench in which the ☞ Several newspapers in this State have complained of the meanness of the Legislature in the selection of only a few of the newspapers in the State in which the publication of the laws of the extra session should be made We should like very well to know who adjusted that matter, and how it happened that the two Representatives and one Senator from this city allowed such a provision to pass.

The Bangor Democrat, after copying the complaints referred to makes the following just remarks:

"We think the State can well afford to pay as high prices as private citizens, and until the Legislature will consent to do it, all newspaper publishers should decline to do its work The course pursued for a long time by the Legislature towards printers, has been not only unjust but positively shabby, and if they were not treated better by others they would be literally starved out and compelled to change their business. Of this illiberality and injustice the press may well complain, and it is time for publishers and printers to refuse to work for the State for less than half price, as they have done for several years past."

If the selection of papers was made in reference to those disposed to work for a trifle and find themselves, we have no griefs that we were omitted, although among the oldest papers in the State, and at least five years older than the State itself. But if the selection was made on personal grounds, or by way of discriminating in favor of the papers selected, then we think we have just and strong cause of complaint and censure

☞The New York Tribune gives an account of experiments recently made with machinery for submarine purposes. The machine is of peculiar construction, being in fact a mechanical nautilus, having the power of ascent and descent at will, entirely independent of suspension. In connection with the machine at the surface, is a reservoir of condensed air, which, according to depth of water, may contain from 20 to 120 pounds pressure of air to the square inch. This compression is produced by a powerful pump capable of throwing 4,000 cubic feet of air per hour By an interior arrangement of tanks, &c, a variable buoyancy may be given to the machine, capable of lifting weights of ten of more tons, it can be held in suspension at any point of ascent or descent thus allowing stones to be raised clear from the bottom, then transported and deposited in any precise spot, movement being effected in any direction, whatever by a series of three cables and anchors worked from the inside ascent and descent are effected in a most rapid manner This facility of descent, change of buoyancy and power of movement under water, renders this machine of great value for all submarine purposes. The whole bed of a river may be explored from bank to bank—treasure, pearl shells, corals, sponges, and all products under water may be easily gathered and sent to the surface without requiring the machine to rise to the surface An arrangement of the machine permits the digging of trenches under water, by which telegraph wires and water pipes may be placed below the reach of anchors Foundations of piers may be prepared, and then built upon, obviating all crane work for raising and lowering stone, as all work of lifting is done by the machine itself. An arrangement is also made for attaching cannils to sunken ships for raising them by applying points of support directly to the timbers of the ship In a word, the power of condensed air acting as a motor, does the whole work, merely requiring two men inside and one at the surface to manage it

The experiments made were perfectly satisfactory, showing its practical character and its entire safety and usefulness

Effects of Advertising —The Charleston Courier, of a recent date, makes the following sensible remarks in regard to the indications of a paper well filled with mercantile advertisements. And we may be pardoned in saying that it has much the same effect upon the judgments and opinions of all men of correct discrimination, whether they be interested in the matter or not. Says the Courier:—"In looking over our exchanges published in this State, received by yesterday's mail, we were much gratified to perceive the very large number of advertisements that appeared in each, not solely because it naturally pleases us to see those engaged in the same laborious business as ourselves successful, but because it indicates a progressive spirit and a prosperous condition of affairs—indeed, in our opinion, there is no truer barometer of the degree of commercial prosperity, to which, every, town, village or district has attained, than the advertising columns of their respective papers."

☞ It has been asserted with the utmost confidence that Russia has a spy or tool in every Cabinet in Europe. Recent occurrences make the assertion appear credible, that she has many and influential agents in every country, our own not excepted, is a notorious fact. Her secret service costs several millions of pounds annually Where gold can effect her purpose, it is liberally given, and when gold is insufficient, lies are manufactured and circulated with an adroitness which quiets suspicion of their source and real design. His constant aim is to weaken every other power. To this, Americans owe whatever friendship Russia manifested toward the Republic in its earlier days. To this we must attribute the solicitude with which she now watches our republican growth.

☞ The ship Maine of Bath, is reported ashore on Pond Island Shoal. She is from Europe with a cargo of railroad iron and chains, and is owned by Messrs. Patten of Bath.

☞ Mr. Sombner after successfully introducing the Dentonian System of Penmanship to the public schools of St. Louis, is now engaged in the introduction to the schools in Chicago, Illinois.

☞ Railroads have done much for the merchants of Boston, but advertising has done more.

☞ The Oxford Democrat, though boldly dealing heavy blows to the Wildcat section, does so with a timid clutch to party organization and party name, as though it fears it will go to destruction incontinently, if, for one moment, it relaxed its grasp upon the democratic party. It claims for itself and friends to be the true party, and insists upon it that the Wildcats have left the party This is all sheer nonsense, or what is worse, cowardice The Democrat should be ashamed of itself, thus to dodge behind the shield of party, when the real leading and substantial idea is the democracy of numbers. The Democrat acts upon the idea that it is a virtue to leave what is claimed as the democracy of numbers when it goes wrong, and has aims and purposes adverse to the security and welfare of the people, and it ought to have independence enough to let go the mere grasp upon a party name, instead of laboring to defy it

☞ The New York Sun states that a number of benevolent ladies in that city have recently established a free school for destitute children who may be found wandering about the streets

The mode of operation is this, whenever children of the above description are found in the streets, they are if possible, persuaded to attend the school, where an excellent dinner is served up to them In this manner they are kept until the afternoon, and by this means a punctual attendance is universally affected

The school has been in operation about two weeks and now numbers some thirty scholars, all females, and all of whom are remarkably studious, making rapid progress Another school similar to the above has recently been established in South Brooklyn, and promises to effect much good.

The American Statesman; or, Illustrations of the Life and Character of Daniel Webster. Designed for American Youth By Rev. Joseph Banvard, Author of Plymouth and the Pilgrims, Novelties of the New World, Romance of American History, &c Boston Gould & Lincoln. 1853

The author of this work, from an abundance of rich materials furnished in the life and character of Daniel Webster has made a choice gathering of them in a form calculated to arrest the attention of the youth of our country, and, to fire them with a noble ambition to do something for themselves, and so act from those high principles of rectitude which the great statesman so clearly stated and so eloquently enforced The name and the fame of Daniel Webster are precious to our country, but their truest and best office is to lead American youth to a study of the man and an acquaintance with his works This volume has a use and will serve as a most attractive and convenient introduction to both the man and his works, and is deserving of a wide circulation

Lectures to Young Men: By Wm G Eliot Pastor of the Church of the Messiah, St Louis. Boston Crosby, Nichols & Co

This volume, which has passed to the third edition, contains the substance of six lectures addressed to the young men of the author's charge, designed to show the high dignity of their nature, the necessity, importance and practicability of self education the right use of leisure time, the folly and exceeding sinfulness of transgressing the laws of God and the laws written in their natures, pointing out to them the Ways of Wisdom, and leading them to the contemplation of religion as requisite for the unfolding of the inward life and to secure to them peace of mind and lasting happiness in this world and the next

☞ The State of Maine says that Messrs. Clark and McCrillis contracted to send six millions of lumber from Canada to Portland next year, paying the Railway $4 per M freight They have extended their operations so as to cut twenty millions the ensuing winter for the Portland market

The lumber operations of Messrs Pingree and others upon Umbagog Lake and the head waters of the Androscoggin, will add largely to the lumber trade of Portland another year

The Washington "Union" is threatening Senators in advance, declaring that any democratic Senator who may vote against Collector Redfield's confirmation, will have reason for personal and political regret forever As it is, several members who have been here, express their determination to have the office of Assistant Secretary of the Treasury changed, so as to require the appointment to be submitted to the Senate, instead of as now, being a mere appointment by the Secretary

☞ The Jeffersonian this week is putting it to the Belfast Journal and the Bangor Democrat, for their opposition to Free Soilism, which the Jefferson an is fossil enough to think distinguishes the "Democratic party." This is probably about the last we shall see in the Jeffersonian of that sort The President's message will probably make it clear, and bend and crouch, and then for the sake of being democratic, it will follow the lead of the Belfast Journal, much it now berates.

☞ There seems to be great agonizing in various quarters among the leaders of the democracy and the democracy par excellence, as to the person who shall be the next Governor, The board of political trade recently held a meeting in this city since which great activity is shown in trying to switch the Morrill Representatives into the traces to vote for Mr. Filsbury. There will be lively times at Augusta when the Legislature comes together

☞ The long, continual dreary, dark, damp weather cleared off yesterday noon with a mild balmy air, and a bright sun

Washington, Nov 20

The Union says that Joshua Bates, of the firm of Baring Brothers & Co., has been appointed umpire to the Mixed Commission, and has accepted the office.

The Sentinel has a severe article on Secretary Guthrie, characterizing him as a bold, bad man, whose conduct has brought discord into the party.

An extent of 1810 square miles of land, on the River St John, Canada, was lately sold, in timber berths, for $26,155.

Ship Centinel, Drummond, at Liverpool 3d instant, from New York, reported with damage and some cargo thrown over, was lying to 3 at ultimo, in a heavy gale from WNW, which suddenly shifting to NNW laid her in the trough of the sea, when she was boarded by a heavy sea, from the main rigging to the taffrail, which stove in her bulwarks, skylights, and companion ways, swept away wheelhouse, and everything in it, all the boats, except the long boat, up at the plank sheaf to the length of sixty feet, the planksheen being in some parts a foot wide Not long after it was found she had nine feet of water in the hold, and more than four feet in the between decks The pumps became chocked by grain, when one was hoisted out and put in the fore hold, where it was worked efficiently by the crew and passengers, reducing the water in the hold two feet On her arrival it was matter of much astonishment that she ever reached port

A Valuable Donation to a Newspaper. The Gazette des Hopitaux, one of the oldest medical journals in France, has just received a donation of 10,000f a year from a physician attached to one of the hospitals of Paris on condition, 1st, that the donor's name shall be kept inviolably secret, 2d, that 3000f of the sum shall be employed in encouraging the authors of useful and practical papers published in the Gazette, and, 3d, that the remaining 7000f shall be employed in distributing copies of the Gazette to physicians or students who are too poor to pay the whole or any part of the subscription, the simple declaration to that effect of the applicants being all that is to be required This is probably the first time in the history of the period call press that a journal has been the object of such munificence.

Powers, the Sculptor —A letter from Florence to the Newark Advertiser, says

"Our countryman, Powers, the sculptor, has just received from Washington an unsought commission as Commercial Agent of the United States at Florence, an office without much emolument or distinction He is constrained to decline it, as see the duties of the appointment are wholly foreign to his professional pursuits A much more appropriate compliment has been conferred upon him in London, by the European Association for the encouragement of Arts and industry, which has elected him one of its honorary Vice Presidents, as I learn by a highly complimentary letter from Lord Baelle His genius is held in high honor throughout Europe, and reflects credit upon his country

Remitting Money by Mail —A very important case was recently come before the United States District Court at Richmond Va Chief Justice Taney Presiding, in which the question was whether money remitted by mail from a debtor to a creditor, such money being lost before it reached its destination was a release of the debtor from obligations of the debt The Chief Justice decided that the plaintiff having requested the debtor to remit the money, without specifying or directing how it was to be sent, and the defendant having complied with the request by remitting through the mail as was the custom with others to do, the debtor would no be held obliged to make good the loss The decision is in conflict with other cases involving the same principles, the Chief Justice holding that the former decisions were not correct.

☞ The New York Sun discourses upon courtesy in Rail Road Cars, and gives the following hint to ladies —

"We venture to say that, if ladies would only condescend to speak or smile a grateful acknowledgement when gentlemen abandon their seats to them, all thought of the Company's interest would be forgotten, and a lady's entrance in a crowded car be welcomed as a gleam of sunshine in a cloudy day the truth is, too many women are like spoiled children who snatch a favor with a frown, and the other sex will get tired of allowing them to have their own way When a smile makes women irresistible, why should they rob man kind of so much happiness by assuming manners that provoke and annoy

☞ A Tailor in Boston thus talks upon the subject of dress

"Everybody should dress well Few can afford to wear shabby or ill made garments, to be poorly clad costs self respect—the respect of our friends—the civility of strangers and the distrust of all He who desires the reputation of a slover, or a loafer, or a sot or a ragamuffin should wear a slouched hat, a seedy coat a vest in tatters, and pantaloons to match, but he who would have even a good opinion of himself, and the confidence of others, should wear well fitting garments, and they can be obtained at a cost so inconsiderable, that no honest, healthy and industrious man need be without them

Now please examine the advertisements in our columns as to where the best garments are kept by our smart men

A Feat One of our flour dealers Mr J C Noyes, (firm of Noyes, Weston & Co.) received by railroad, on Tuesday evening, if we mistake not the day, six hundred barrels of flour, direct from the mills in Cleveland (Ohio) It was brought directly in front of his store on Commercial street, and there transferred from the cars to the third loft or story of his store in two hours' time, being at the rate of three hundred barrels per hour! All this was accomplished without any charge for truckage, storage or cartage, or any other account excepting only the regular freight money Portland Argus

☞ The New Hampshire Statesman, published at Concord, in its issue of the 19th instant, we learn says

The death of Samuel H Ayer, Esq., and now of Mr Atherton, in the same hotel of the same city, within a few weeks of each other, compose an impressive occurrence, which will at least renew and enforce the declaration that man's breath is in his nostrils, and there is even but a step between him and the grave

Humors of the New York Election —Three Inspectors of the 20th ward in New York have been arrested in that city, for substituting ticket, which they had caused to be printed, containing the name of a Soft Shell candidate for Alderman, which they despositied in the return box, in the place of votes which were given for the Whig candidate for Alderman of that ward The offence was so gross that even New York politicians were ashamed of it. The Inspectors were held to bail in the sum of $5000.

Thousands of people are deprived of the pleasure of social intercourse, because they can not follow the example of their more wealthy and extravagant neighbors They would be glad to see and entertain their friends, to give them the very best which their smaller houses and narrower purses would afford but they do not live in princely mansions, are not millionaires, and everything they do must be in contrast with their neighbors. Afraid to meet the contrast which pride presents, they become morose and unhappy, because they can not be as foolish as their neighbors

Arctic Travelling —Perhaps you would like to hear something about our daily arrangements for travelling, as Arctic travelling is rather a novelty. You must be aware that in Arctic travelling you must entirely depend upon your own resources. You have not a single thing to depend on, no produce of the country, or firewood, or coals, or anything of the sort, and whatever you have to take to sustain you for the journey you must carry or drag—It is found out by experience more easy to drag it on sledges than to carry it The plan we adopt is this: we have a sledge generally manned by about six or ten men We end this with provisions, with tents and all requisites for travelling, simple cooking utensils, spirits of wine for cooking &c and start off The quantity people can generally drag is about 40 days' provisions, that gives about two hundred lbs weight to each

After starting from the ship, and travelling on for a certain number of hours—generally about ten or eleven—we then encamp for the night, or rather for the day, because it is considered best to travel at night and sleep in the day, on account of the glare of the sun on the snow We used to travel all night, about ten hours, and then encamp, light our spirits of wine, put our small kettle on it, to thaw the snow water, and after we had our suppers—just a piece of pemmican and a glass of water—we were very glad to get in, after smoking our pipes, (bravo and laughter) The first thing we did after pitching our tent was to lay a sort of macintosh cloth over the snow On this would be a piece of buffalo robe stretched—Each man and officer had a blanket sewed up in the form of a bag, and this we used to jump into, much the same you may see a boy in a sack (laughter) We lay down, head and feet, the next person having his feet to my head, and his head to my feet, just the same as herrings in a barrel (laughter)—Speech of Lieut Cresswell, at a dinner given to him in London, Eng

The cost of moving flour from Cleaveland to the respective ports of New York and Portland, is now in favor of the latter port by many cents per barrel, though the arrangements for transportation above Montreal are far from being satisfactory

There is an average receipt of 2000 barrels of flour daily by the Montreal road Much the larger part, so far, is destined to the Lower Provinces and Boston

A recent number of the North British Mail, an Edinburgh paper, says that at the time of publication, there were in that city about three miles of trucks loaded with potatoes waiting to be discharged on one of the railways for conveyance to London Potatoes were bought up in Edinburgh at about £6 per ton The freight to London amounted to £2 per ton, value in that city, £10—leaving the Scotch dealer a clear profit of £3 per ton,

One of the hundred guns which the Worcester wings fired on Wednesday, was wadded with a copy of the Worcester Spy a copy of the Boston Commonwealth a copy of the rejected constitution, and a Kossuth hat, which a prominent free soiler of Worcester had pledged as wadding for the gun whose brazen throat was expected to announce a coalition victory about that time If gun was ever justified in kicking, that was the gun

The Scholastic Republican says the recent fall in the price of butter with present indications of a greater reduction has somewhat frightened the dealers thereabouts, who have been "holding on" for better prices—and consequently they are now rushing the butter to market in haste Ten to fifteen tons of butter passed that office on Monday, running towards Albany

We have accounts of great damage by fire on the prairies of Illinois and Missouri The unusual dry weather had prepared the grass and leaves so as to furnish fit food for the flames and, not only the grass of the prairie, but the woods and fences, stables, barns, and even dwelling houses, fell victims to the onward march of the destroyer

The Buffalo Courier, Admartine, contains this paragraph

"The recent Election has developed one fact of no more That is, that the people are fast declaring themselves independent of mere party dictation and control This under existing circumstances, we regard as a favorable sign of the times

SEYMOUR'S GALVANIC ABDOMINAL SUPPORTER.

THIS apparatus possesses all the mechanical advantages of the Abdominal Supporters now in use and also some valuable improvements beside the galvanic attachment. It has been tested approved of, and universally adopted in the practice of all the leading Physicians in New York, Boston, and all other places where introduced in the treatment of all Nervous diseases which exhibit themselves under so many different heads, and particularly in the cure of Uterine difficulties. The beneficial results which have uniformly attended the use of this instrument are a sufficient guaranty of its utility and general application. The advantages of this over other Supporters are, it cures by its Galvanic action, presents a smooth surface that does not retain heat or impurities which pass from the system and can be kept pure and healthful

The attention of the medical profession is respectfully solicited to an examination and test of the instrument. The above Supporters are for sale by GEO W EMERSON, Druggist No 4 Smith's Block sole agent for Bangor and vicinity

Green Mountain Vegetable CEMENT.

BROKEN China Glass, Earthen Ware and Fancy Articles of every description repaired and mended making it as strong as before broken without injuring its appearance

This Cement which has been proved to be of great strength will be found particularly useful in every family, the simple manner of its application is alone a recommendation. The adhesive property which it contains is so wonderful that many things will rather break in a fresh place than where they have been mended with it. The variety of purposes for which it may be used are so numerous that it would be difficult to recite them. Its success in mending Glass China &c, is extraordinary, no ordinary degree of heat affecting it and as the joints are scarcely perceptible articles of this kind may be made useful for years, which otherwise would have been cast away

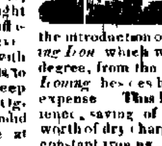
PATENT SELF HEATING

SMOOTHING IRON



MANY important improvements have been made since the beginning of the present century, relieving and facilitating the labor of men by machinery and other modern implements, but females have been nearly neglected until the introduction of the Patent Self Heating Smoothing Iron, which will relieve them in a very great degree, from the excessive and fatiguing labor of Ironing, besides being a great saving of time and expense. This Iron combines economy, convenience, saving of labor and despatch, one cents worth of dry charcoal supplies fuel for a whole days constant ironing. Hard wood coal from the stove will answer the same purpose. It can be used in any room or in the open air. Hatters' and Tailors' Irons are constructed upon the same principle and possess equal superiority.

HARDY'S FAMILY VEGETABLE CATHARTIC PILLS are the best that can be found in any country for Jaundice, and all Bilious troubles, Dyspepsia, Colds, Rheumatism and every complaint in which the stomach or bowels need evacuation or regulation. Yankees can, and do, beat all nations in every thing they attempt. Then discard your Mustang, Kangaroo, Ichneuman, Hyena and all other such heathenish medicines, and call at Hardy's, No. 3 Harlow's Block, where you will find, not only the best Pills but the best Medicines in existence (for all the ills that flesh is heir to,) (except lean pockets) and the best Horse and Ox Medicines besides. PROFESSOR ALEX C BARRY'S or Medicated Compound.

FOR beautifying, improving, and preserving the Hair, curing cuts, bruises, burns, stings, rheumatism and all irritations of the skin. A preparation, the sale of which amounts to one million of bottles annually, would seem to need no advertisement, but as the thousands who purchase, use and approve of it have probably no idea of the enormous extent of the business done by Professor Barry, he gives herewith a plain statement of facts derived from his books, and with them enders his earnest and hearty thanks to his innumerable patrons.

Professor Barry's accounts of sales for the year 1852, show that during that year about 910,000 bottles of his Tricopherous were disposed of, and that the cash product of this immense sale was nearly $100 000.

This plain, unvarnished tale, is a better commentary on the value of the article than any thing its inventor could say. If it were not peerless in its effect upon the hair—if it were not invaluable as a household remedy for cuts, bruises, burns, skin diseases, &c.—it would not, of course be so universally in demand. The wealthy portion of the public would buy it at any price, but Professor Barry has reduced it to a figure so low that the poorest can avail themselves of its benefits.

Sold in large bottles [price 25 cents] at wholesale and retail, at the manufactory and depot 137 Broadway, New York and by the principal merchants and druggists throughout the United States and Canada, Mexico, West Indies, Great Britain, France, &c.

THE GREATEST

MEDICAL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE!

MR KENNEDY of Roxbury has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures EVERY KIND OF HUMOR from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple.—He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases and never failed except in two cases (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two or three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humors in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.

Two or three bottles warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate cases of rheumatism.

Three or four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the very worst case of scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There are no ifs nor ands, hums nor ha's about it, suiting some cases but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effect of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old, to old people of sixty. I have seen poor puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to a sick headache one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some who have taken it have been costive for years and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings, but you must not be alarmed—they always disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it—on the contrary, when that feeling is gone you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

TESTIMONIALS

The following certificate from Dr John C Warren, of Boston was given 17 years since, but will last forever.

Boston Jan 5 1833

Having had occasion to observe that some persons afflicted with Hernia have suffered much from the want of a skilful workman in accommodating Trusses to the peculiarities of their cases. I have taken pains to inform myself of the competency of Mr J F Foster to supply the deficiency occasioned by the death of Mr Beath. After some months of observation of his work I am well satisfied that Mr Foster is well acquainted with the manufacture of these instruments, and ingenious in accommodating them to the variety of cases which occur. I feel called upon to recommend him to my professional brethren and to the public as a person well fitted to supply their wants in regard to these important articles.

JOHN C WARREN, M D

The undersigned take great pleasure in recommending to the favorable consideration of those who are unhappily afflicted with Hernia, Mr James Frederick Foster, as a skilful and competent person in the manufacture and fitting of Trusses. We have employed him (some of us over twenty years) and therefore speak from personal knowledge of his abilities. His early advantages, his long experience in the business, and the large number of individuals whom he has relieved in a variety of cases, render him, in our opinion, equal if not superior to any manufacturer of the article. His father Dea. Jedediah Foster of Charlestown, was master of the Porch house in that town for upwards of twenty four years during which period Mr F. had unlimited (?) of the opportunity, and made application of Trusses to a great variety of cases, with great success, some of which were of a very complicated and distressing character.

It is well known to all who have occasion to wear a Truss, that the great excellence consists in its adaptation to the body, at the same time relieving the patient. Any ordinary mechanic may make a Truss, but none but a skilful practitioner can apply it in such a manner as effectually and effectually radically cure the complaint.

Our experience has convinced us that Mr Foster has thoroughly attained this knowledge. The certificates of Dr J C Warren and other eminent surgeons which he has shown to us, fully sustain the opinion we here express.

Self Acquired Fame!

DR. JOHNSON'S

AMERICAN ANODYNE LINIMENT.

For Internal and External Use.

THIS wonderful Medicine notwithstanding it has never had the advantage of newspaper publicity has yet acquired a higher and more extended popularity than any other similar compound in the world. It is entirely of vegetable extract, perfectly safe to be administered even to the most delicate child and alike astonishing and satisfactory in its effects upon man or beast. To those unacquainted with this invaluable medicine we say, Give it a trial, and we promise you a radical cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Spitting of Blood, and all Lung Complaints, Chronic Diarrhoea, and Dysentery, in all of which cases it should be used internally. The effects of its external application in cases of Rheumatism, Spinal Diseases, Sprains, Chapped Hands, Bruises, Burns and all descriptions of wounds are magical. Persons troubled with Cramp in the Stomach, Side or Bowels, Sore Throat, Piles &c, by a combined internal and external application of this Anodyne, cannot fail of certain and speedy cure. The proprietor can produce volumes of testimonials in its favor, but prefers to let it carry its own recommendations as it has done for forty years past. We ask no man to use it after an unsatisfactory trial. In its composition it unites several of the most penetrating and healing specifics known to the materia medica.—The inventor of this article was in the constant and successful practice of medicine for more than twenty years.

This is to certify that having been troubled for a number of years with a distressing cough, and bleeding at the lungs, and receiving no benefit from medical aid, in 1848 I was to all appearance in the last stage of consumption. My legs swelled so that I was unable to stand or help myself. At that time your Liniment was providentially recommended to me and by the use of three or four bottles I was entirely cured, and have since been able to labor every day. I have also for the last twenty years been subject to severe attacks of bloody dysentery, and never found any permanent relief until I took your Liniment, since which I have had no return of this complaint. I can truly say I think your Anodyne Liniment was the means of saving my life. JOHN T ATKINS.

Brewer, Sept 29, 1852.

DR JOHNSON: Dear Sir—In consequence of having a fever sore on my leg, it became entirely stiff at the knee, and it was decided by the best surgeons that my leg must be amputated—but fortunately I heard of your Anodyne Liniment and by using three bottles, my leg was limbered and strengthened, and for a number of years I have been able to use it about as well as the other. I consider myself indebted to the use of your Liniment through the blessing of Providence for the use of my leg, and would say to others who may need help in this way, try it, and no doubt you will be cured.

"DIGEST." Such is the true meaning of word PEPSIN. It is the chief element, or Great Digesting Principle of the Gastric Juice—the solvent of the Food, the Purifying, Preserving, and Stimulating Agent of the Stomach and Intestines. It is extracted from the Digestive Stomach of the Ox, thus forming a TRUE DIGESTIVE FLUID precisely like the natural Gastric Juice in its Chemical powers and furnishing a complete and perfect substitute for it.

This is NATURE'S OWN REMEDY for an unhealthy stomach. No art of man can equal its curative powers. It contains no ALCOHOL, BITTERS, ACIDS or NAUSEOUS DRUGS. It is extremely agreeable to the taste, and may be taken by the most feeble patients who cannot eat a water cracker without acute distress. Beware of DRUGGED IMITATIONS. Pepsin is NOT A DRUG.
